The Revival of Burning at the Stake.

Here is what happened last Sunday, the day of Christian peace and rest and worship, in the town of Chester in the Christian State of Tennessee."The mob then took him to the narrow torture. A chain was fastened to his body and then wrapped around the tree. A young man holding a two-gallon can then poured oil upon him, saturating his clothes from head to foot and the match was applied."The flames leaped high above the man's head and as the fire reached his flesh he began uttering agonizing shrieks, appealing to the mob, but they were repelled with more oil and the pillar of more brush around his body until he was almost buried beneath burning debris. After an hour nothing was left of the negro save small parts of his shoes. After the burning the mob dispersed."The man burned was a negro, of course.
He had murdered a white woman, but had been arrested for the crime, and was in jail awaiting speedy trial and sure conviction, when a mob of one thousand people, "mostly farmers" in the opinion of the author, broke into the jail and carried him off to the stake, in spite of persuasions to desist from officers of the law and other "well-known citizens."Today very likely, we shall read of an other burning at the stake; but if it does not come today it will come soon and be followed in quick succession by many more. The horrible punishment which stimulates the mania that leads to the crime of the victims, and the savagery of the lawless vengeance will still further brutalize mobs, so that they will demand more burnings to satisfy their mad passions.Burning at the stake has been revived as a distinguishing feature of American institutions. Now negroes are the victims, but who will come next?—New York Sun.Free medical advice. Men and women suffering from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., by letter, absolutely without fee or charge.
For more than thirty years as chief consulting physician to the "Invalids' Hotel" and Surgical Institute, N. Y., Dr. Pierce has devoted himself to the treatment and cure of chronic forms of disease. Assisted by his staff of nearly a score of physicians, each man a specialist, his success has been phenomenal, ninety-eight persons in every hundred treated being absolutely and altogether cured. Women have especially availed themselves of Dr. Pierce's offer of free advice, thereby avoiding the unpleasant questionings, the obvious examinations, and odious local treatments considered necessary by some practitioners. Over half a million women have been treated by Dr. Pierce and his staff for diseases peculiar to women, with unvarying success. Write without fear or without fee. Every letter is treated as strictly private and answered confidentially, and all answers are sent in plain envelopes, bearing no printing upon them. Address Dr. R. V.

News of the County

DOYLESTOWN.

If political sentiment among leading Republicans in Doylestown is shared to any extent by the voters at large in the county, it is likely that the party will support the State ticket named at Harrisburg last week. There are Republicans at that county seat who are not in the least described in sympathy with the State administration and who condemn much that has occurred in the way of legislation. But they declare they will vote the straight ticket. They have observed the campaign as conducted by the Union and Democratic parties and are convinced, from the proceedings up to date and the character of the candidates nominated, that instead of being an honest and unselfish crusade against political corruption the whole thing has resolved itself into a scramble for place and power. They do not question the motives of the sincere followers of the Union party, but they do doubt the wisdom of the course they have pursued to bring about a change in the Republican party's leadership. These Republicans would have been found arrayed against the leaders had the fight been instituted in the ranks of their own party by endeavoring to control nominations, but they are glad that the battle is being fought in the ranks of the Union party, and they declare that they can see no good in an alliance with Democracy in the light of what has transpired. They recognize the fact that the battle chiefly concerns Philadelphia as the lines are now drawn, and that in that city the Ashbridge affair overshadowed State issues in spite of all said to the contrary. These Republicans have planned to present to them two tickets, the Republican and Democratic. They do not see how reform is to be effected by electing Palm as State Treasurer and Yerkes as Justice of the Supreme Court. The offensive or harsh is said in Doylestown concerning Judge Yerkes. Attention is merely called to the fact that he has been a resident of this county for many years.
He is a Democrat.

who died at the residence of Charles Satterthwaite last Wednesday, from an operation for strabismus, of Morrisville, was held on Saturday at the Fallsington Friends' Meeting House. Interment was in the Friends' burying grounds.If this township has such an official as a Supervisor it would be in order for him to devote a little attention to the Fallsington road between here and Morrisville.
The road, which made its way to the storm on Saturday the road was almost impossible for pedestrians and bicyclists, the two worst places being above the Magnolia Mill and the other in front of John Owens' farm. The latter place is bad at even an ordinary storm, and could be remedied by a few carloads of gravel or dirt.Public school opens on Monday, September 3, and the following assignment of teachers has been made: Principal of High School, H. Clinton Negley, of Kill-glen, Dauphin county; grammar grade, day evening, August 29. All who are interested in the project are urged to be good cause along. It is hoped that a large force of workers will be present. Remember the date, August 29. Come out and enjoy the moonlight and refreshments.Work on the new Catholic Church on Washington street will be pushed as rapidly as possible and it is hoped that it will be ready for dedication about the middle of November. The structure will be of frame, 65x48 feet. Rev. J. J. McNamany was appointed to organize the parish in October of last year and is making excellent progress. The parish is large in extent and runs down as far as Wheat Sheaf, where it adjoins St. Marks' Parish, of Bristol. The priest to return on regular parish duty, Yardley, which was formerly a mission of Newtown. Despite the addition to the parish, it is the smallest in point of numbers in the diocese of Philadelphia and Father McNamany will have hard work ahead of him to get things in running order. But he is very popular with the parishioners and will have their united support in accomplishing his task.A coaching party composed of twenty of the young folks of Cornwells went to Willow Grove Wednesday evening of last week.Thursday evening of this week's sociable will be given in the lecture room of the Edgely Presbyterian Church by the so plentiful as this season, owing to the excessive rains.The C. E. Society will hold a sociable at the home of Joseph Green on next Saturday evening, August 31.The several threshing machines are now very busy, everybody wanting his grain out of the straw to save it from the fly.The crop of onion sets is about all harvested, but there is some complaint that they are not so good as they ought to be.The recent heavy rains have caused quite a rise in the river, the water filling all the meadows near across the Bordentown road, which made it difficult for pedestrians to travel or for two or three days.In the absence of our pastor, Rev. Mr.

Forman, of Trenton, occupied the pulpit on last Sunday evening in the chapel and delivered a very good sermon to a large audience. Text, Luke 11: 35-36.In its advanced and chronic form a cold in the head is known as Nasal Catarrh and is the recognized source of other disorders. Having stood the test of continued successful use, Ely's Cream Balm is recognized as a specific for membranous diseases of the nasal passages, and you should resort to this treatment in your own case. It is not drying, does not produce sneezing.
